4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep." - Jn 10:14-15

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Who are our shepherds today? What voices do we hear? Who do we follow or listen to? In such a materialized part of society, which seeks personal power forgetting about those around it and enveloped in such advanced technology, it is almost impossible to distinguish the good Shepherd. Absorbed in herself and in his selfish whims, she easily distances herself from the truth and justice so necessary for approaching the shepherding of Jesus through his Word. However, if we pay attention to the environment of daily life, we will realize that there are shepherds who risk their lives for their sheep. As a living example, we have the Bishop of the Diocese of Matagalpa, Nicaragua, Monsignor Rolando Alvarez, sentenced to 26 years in prison for telling the truth and seeking justice for his community. Pope Francis as our greatest Pastor invites us to go towards ourselves and reflect on the following: "Dear brothers and sisters: in this time, many thoughts and concerns lead us to return and delve into ourselves. Let's pay attention to the voices that reach our hearts. Let's ask ourselves where they come from. Let us ask for the grace to recognize and follow the voice of the good Shepherd, who takes us out of the fold of selfishness and guides us towards the pastures of true freedom (03-05-2020). This Sunday let us say our words to Jesus and follow his example of guiding those we love on the right path. "The good Shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." (John 10:11). ©LPI

Prayer for Vocations

Abba, Father,
you loved the world so much that you sent your own Son, Jesus the Christ, to be our Savior. He established your kingdom of justice, love and peace. Through Baptism into your Church you have called us to be faithful disciples of your Son and servants of the Kingdom.

Grant a generous heart to those you are calling to be ordained Priests and Deacons, Consecrated Religious, and Lay Ministers. Raise up priests from our Diocese and in our parishes to shepherd your people.

By the power of your Holy Spirit may we as your Church never lose confidence that you will send forth laborers into the harvest. This is our prayer through Christ our Lord.

AMEN
